

New

O WOULD I WERE A GIRL AGAIN.

Song.

COMPOSED & ARRANGED for the
PIANO FORTE

AND RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED

TO MISS. MARY SIPP.

BY

HENRY EIKMEIER.

Greenwich Boston.

25th Oct.

NEW YORK.

Published by GOULD & BERRY 297 Broadway

Boston.
O. DITSON.

Jersey City.
R. B. HASHOW.

Williamsburgh.
C. M. FOSTER.

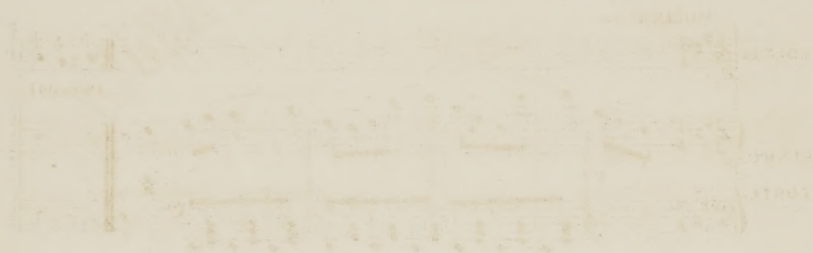

N. York.
BRUND & GARGIL.

Entered according to act of Congress A.D. 1858 by Gould & Berry in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the South District of New York.

1852
EIKMEIER

OH: WOULD I WERE A GIRL AGAIN.

W. LAMBERT

OH! WOULD I WERE A GIRL AGAIN.

H. EIKMEIER.

MODERATO.

VOICE.

PIANO

FORTE.

p

Oh would I were a girl a - gain with heart and spir - it frank and free, To gaily

p rove the village plain or singing o'er its flow'ry lea, To gaily rove the village plain or singing o'er its flow'ry lea.

mf p

SECOND VERSE.

Than can you won-der if I sigh, And sadly

p

• thus soft de-plore To wish for days alas gone by And be a hap-py girl once more, To wish for days alas gone by And be a hap - py girl once more.

THIRD VERSE.

5

I gaily trod the mountain side Knew nought of care and sullen gloom, Its purple bells brought home with pride To deck my mothers little room. Oh would I were a girl again With heart and spirit frank and free.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

CHICAGO

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

CHICAGO